Miss Caroline Hamilton alternates with Camille D'Arville as the Maid Marian in "Robin Hood" at the Garden Theatre, and there appears to be an effort on the part of their respective admirers to learn which favorite has the most enthusiastic supporters. . . .

The tedious discussion over the origin of "Ta-ra-ra Boom-de-ay" is in danger of being revived through the offer to managers this week of the libretto and score of the German opera in which the much abused song appears. Manager liarry Assin was the first to whom the opera was submitted, but he said he was very well satisfied with "Jupiter," and declined the proffered investment.

The two bundredth performance of "A Trip to Chinatown," at the Madison Square Theatre, will be commemorated to-morrow night with the inevitable souvenir. The gross receipts of the farce-comedysince it started on its long run in this house have been, in round numbers, $144,000. This is a bex-office statement, but there does not seem to be any good reasoning for questioning it.

About 300 members of the American Wate About 300 members of the American Water Works Association, attending the annual Convention here, visited the Star Theatre last night and joined in applauding the conceits of "The American Minister." Mr. Crane's long season at the Star will close with the performance Saturday night. The theatre will then go into darkness for the Summer.

Pauline Hall's new opera will be produced a Boston, it is announced, week after next.

The programme for the Casino Root Garden is to be on the same order as that at the Folies Bergieres, Paris. The root garden will be illuminated by 3,000 incandescent lights, each of 25-candle power. The stage will have a 25-foot front.
